The E. J. Ourso College of Business’ Diplomats for Diversity is a student organization established to assist the Minority Business Program with the recruitment and retention of minority undergraduate students.

Diplomats attend student activities on and off campus. In addition, they work with the coordinator of the Minority Business Program to develop programs that support and create community among minority business and pre-business students. Diplomats also mentor students enrolled in the Bridge to Success Program.

To apply, please submit the following with LSU ID on all documents by Friday, February 8, 2008:

- résumé
- essay — “Why I Want to Be a Diplomat”

Must be a student admitted to the E. J. Ourso College to apply.

To: Kirsten Edwards
at kedwar5@lsu.edu or Minority Business Program
Louisiana State University
3304L Patrick F. Taylor Hall (formerly CEBA)
Baton Rouge, LA 70803

If selected, the participant must be able to attend a mandatory meeting Wednesday, February 13, 2008, from 3:30-5:30 p.m. The mission of the Minority Business Program (MBP) is to recruit and retain underrepresented minority students to the LSU E. J. Ourso College of Business. In addition, the MBP seeks to create a community and support network that will contribute to the increased success of its students.