Exam Copy Available

Please send me a complimentary copy of Forensic and Investigative Accounting.

Course Name/Number: _________________________________

Estimated Enrollment: ________________________________

Text Currently Used: _________________________________

Expected Textbook Decision Date: _______________________

Phone #: __________________________________________

E-mail address: _______________________________________

Customer Information
Please make any corrections to the information below.

Exam Copy Available

If you would like to review Forensic and Investigative Accounting, 3rd Edition for adoption in your tax curriculum, just fill in and return this postage paid card or contact Patrick Cummings at:

1-800-224-7477 Ext 4604
Patrick.cummings@wolterskluwer.com

For more information, visit:
cchgroup.com/textbooks

Modern day forensic accounting in one comprehensive volume

A contemporary accounting text for an evolving subject

Examine the possibilities.

A hot new topic to energize your accounting curriculum

- The fundamentals of litigation support and investigative auditing in an engaging format
- Theory and examples from an insider’s perspective – authored by educators who are also forensic accountants
- Ancillary materials that create a stimulating environment
- From CCH, the trusted resource to generations of accountants
Forensic and Investigative Accounting — A powerful teaching tool

Introduce your students to an exciting new branch of accounting

Forensic and Investigative Accounting by D. Larry Crumbley, Lester E. Heitger, and G. Stevenson Smith lays a solid foundation for this developing field where the knowledge, skills and abilities of advanced accounting are combined with investigative expertise and applied to legal problems. Forensic and Investigative Accounting provides clear, step-by-step guidance of investigative auditing, fraud detection, litigation, valuation and cybercrime. The text is interesting and engaging, with chapter exercises and internet-related assignments to help students understand how to identify and prevent corruption.

Create an exciting learning environment

Forensic and Investigative Accounting provides real world scenarios to stimulate learning.

Contents

PART ONE: THE FIELD AND PRACTICE OF FORENSIC ACCOUNTING
Introduction to Forensic and Investigative Accounting
• Forensic Accounting Education
• Institutions and Specialties

PART TWO: UNCOVERING ACCOUNTING CRIME
Fraudulent Financial Reporting
• Detecting Fraud in Financial Reporting
• Employee Fraud: The Misappropriation of Assets
• Indirect Methods of Reconstructing Income
• Money Laundering and Transnational Financial Flows

PART THREE: COURTROOM PROCEDURES AND LITIGATION SUPPORT
Litigation Services Provided by Accountants
• Proper Evidence Management
• Commercial Damages
• Litigation Support in Special Situations
• Computing Economic Damages

PART FOUR: CYBERCRIME
Computer Forensics: A Brief Introduction
• Internet Forensic Analysis: Profiling the Cyber Criminal
• Cybercrime Management: Legal Issues
• Cybercrime Management: Loss Valuations

PART FIVE: BUSINESS VALUATIONS

PART SIX: FORENSIC CAPSTONE ILLUSTRATION
Forensic Accounting in Action

Ancillary Teaching Materials

FOR THE STUDENT
■ Chapter objectives
■ Illustrative examples, figures, tables and sidebars to keep the presentation lively
■ Case history of a forensic engagement from start to finish
■ Test problems at the end of each chapter to keep measure student’s understanding

FOR TEACHERS
■ Instructor’s Guide with chapter problems and solutions
■ Testbank with solutions
■ Instructor’s Guide on CD

CCH StudyMATE is an online learning center designed especially for college students. The StudyMATE Forensic Topics Library was created to supplement this textbook by providing an easy online tutor to help students with difficult concepts and test them on their knowledge. CCH textbook adopters and their students have free access to the Forensic Topics library for a full year! To view the courses available, visit www.chstudymate.com. Enrollment instructions are provided with each textbook.

PLUS — FREE online access to CCH® StudyMate™

CCH StudyMate is an online learning center designed especially for college students. The StudyMATE Forensic Topics Library was created to supplement this textbook by providing an easy online tutor to help students with difficult concepts and test them on their knowledge. CCH textbook adopters and their students have free access to the Forensic Topics library for a full year! To view the courses available, visit www.chstudymate.com. Enrollment instructions are provided with each textbook.

About The Authors:

Professor D. Larry Crumbley, CPA, CFD, CrFA is the KPMG Endowed Professor in the Department of Accounting, Louisiana State University. He has published more than 300 articles and authored more than 50 books. He is founding editor of the Journal of Forensic Accounting, Auditing, Fraud & Risk. Professor Crumbley was a member of the AICPA’s Litigation and Dispute Resolution Services Subcommittee Fraud Task Force and is on the Fraud Deterrence Board of National Association of Certified Valuation Analysts.

Lester E. Heitger, CPA is a Professor in the Department of Accounting, Indiana University, Bloomington. where he teaches forensic accounting. Professor Heitger has served as a forensic accountant and has testified as an expert witness.

G. Stevenson Smith is a Professor of Accounting at Southeastern Oklahoma State University. He is a CMA and a CPA, as well as a Certified Cost Analyst. He writes a column for the Journal of Forensic Accounting, Auditing, Fraud & Taxation. His professional experience includes working for the Securities and Exchange Commission in Washington, DC, as a financial analyst.